To: All Imams, Business Persons and Community Leaders

As Salaamu Alaikum,

The National Muslim Business Council, The North Carolina Muslim Business Council, and Masjid Ash-Shaheed will host the annual "Business Expo Conference 2010", Honoring the late Imam W. D. Mohammad's legacy of economic development in our community.

This event will take place April 30th- May 2nd, 2010 on the grounds of Masjid Ash-Shaheed, 400 West Sugar Creek Road in Charlotte, NC. The resident Imam of Masjid Ash-Shaheed is Imam Khalil Akbar.

The theme this year is "The Legacy of Imam W.D. Mohammed for the economic development of our community: Past, Present and Future."

Over the past 35 years, our leader Imam W. D. Mohammed worked tirelessly, not only teaching us our religion, but also educating us on the importance of business economics. When we look back, we can see the impact and influence his teachings have made on our lives; whether it was going back to school, starting a business or spending more wisely. Whatever endeavor, being a student of his teachings has made a positive impact on our lives.

Come and join us in celebrating and honoring our leader, the late Imam W.D. Mohammed, as we develop new strategies to succeed in an Islamic business climate. Don't miss this great opportunity!

Enclosed is the registration and hotel information for the conference. You can also obtain additional information and register online at www.nationalmbc.org

We are looking forward to your participation and support in this important event.

May Allah continue to bless us.

As Salaamu Alaikum,

The Conference Hosting Committee
